GET ALONG GANG™

Hi Gang!

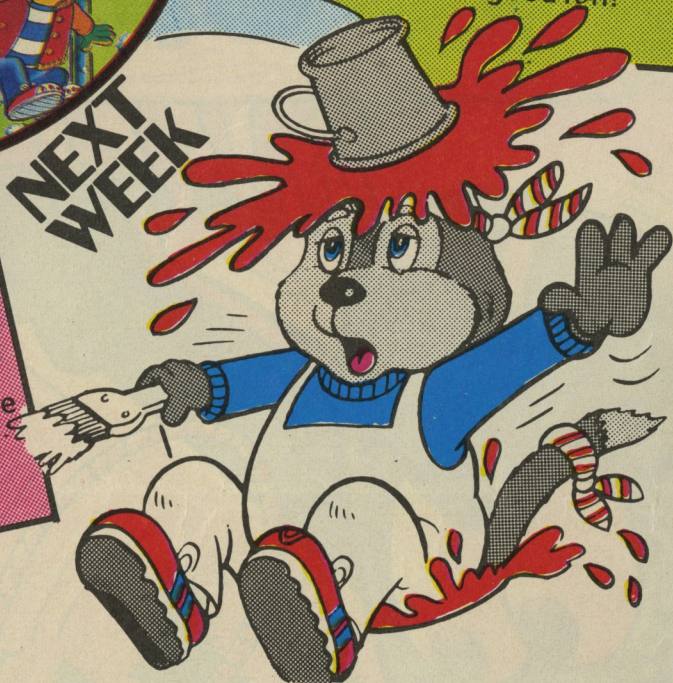

With tennis so much in the news at the moment, we at Green Meadow, decided to put on our own "Wimbledon". You can catch the last championship point of our competition and discover the winners on page 10!

There is also a fabulous opportunity to join the Get Along Gang Savings Bank on page 16. All you have to do to join is to make our super Green Meadow money-box. Saving pocket money has never been such good fun!

NEXT WEEK

A few weeks ago Portia Porcupine told a story in the comic about the day Green Meadow held a flower show. In the story, the Get Along Gang picked wild flowers. In Green Meadow there are lots and lots of wild flowers but we aren't so lucky in this country so please don't pick any yourself!

If you would like a birthday request, then write on a postcard to: Birthday Requests, Get Along Gang, Marvel Comics, 23 Redan Place, Bayswater, London W2 4SA.

We regret that we cannot publish a request unless we are given 7 weeks notice.

GANG PROJECT

The Get Along Gang offer to decorate Hoofnagel's Emporium – with disastrous results!

Make ice-cream

It is a well-known fact that Mr Hoofnagel makes the best ice-cream around. So, here, for all you Get Along Gangs who don't happen to live in Green Meadow – is Mr Hoofnagel's Top Secret Ice-Cream Recipe!

You will need:
2 eggs, 2 tablespoons of icing sugar, ½ cup of cream and your favourite flavour.

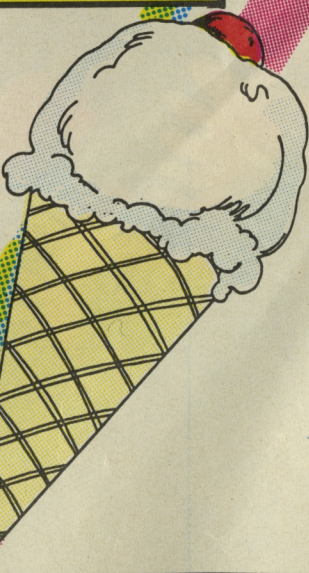

1 First separate the egg whites from the yolks. This is a little tricky, so ask an adult to teach you how to do it if you don't already know.

2 Beat the egg whites with a whisk until it is thick and frothy. Beat the cream until it is thick. Take turns at beating – it is hard work!

3 Mix the cream and egg whites. Put the egg yolks and icing sugar together stir until smooth.

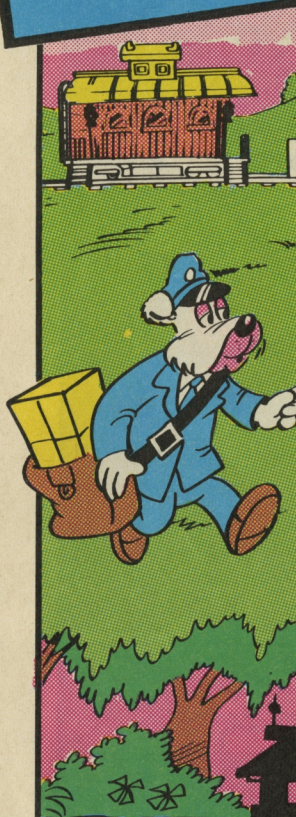

4 Mix everything together. Flavour the ice-cream if you want to with fruit or nuts.

5 Pour the mixture into a tray, or cake tin and place in the freezer part of the 'fridge for an hour until hard.

GET ALONG GANG™

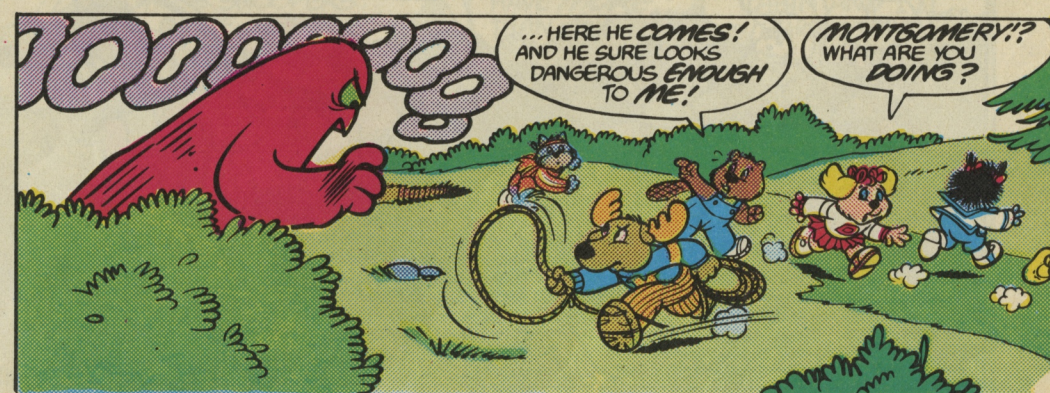

The gang, on a summer hike to the Mystery Mountains, have found out that the legends are true – there is a monster living there, and he's trapped some of the gang in a deep pit!

Norah's Ark by Ann and Reg Cartwright. A Picture Puffin. Price: £1.50.

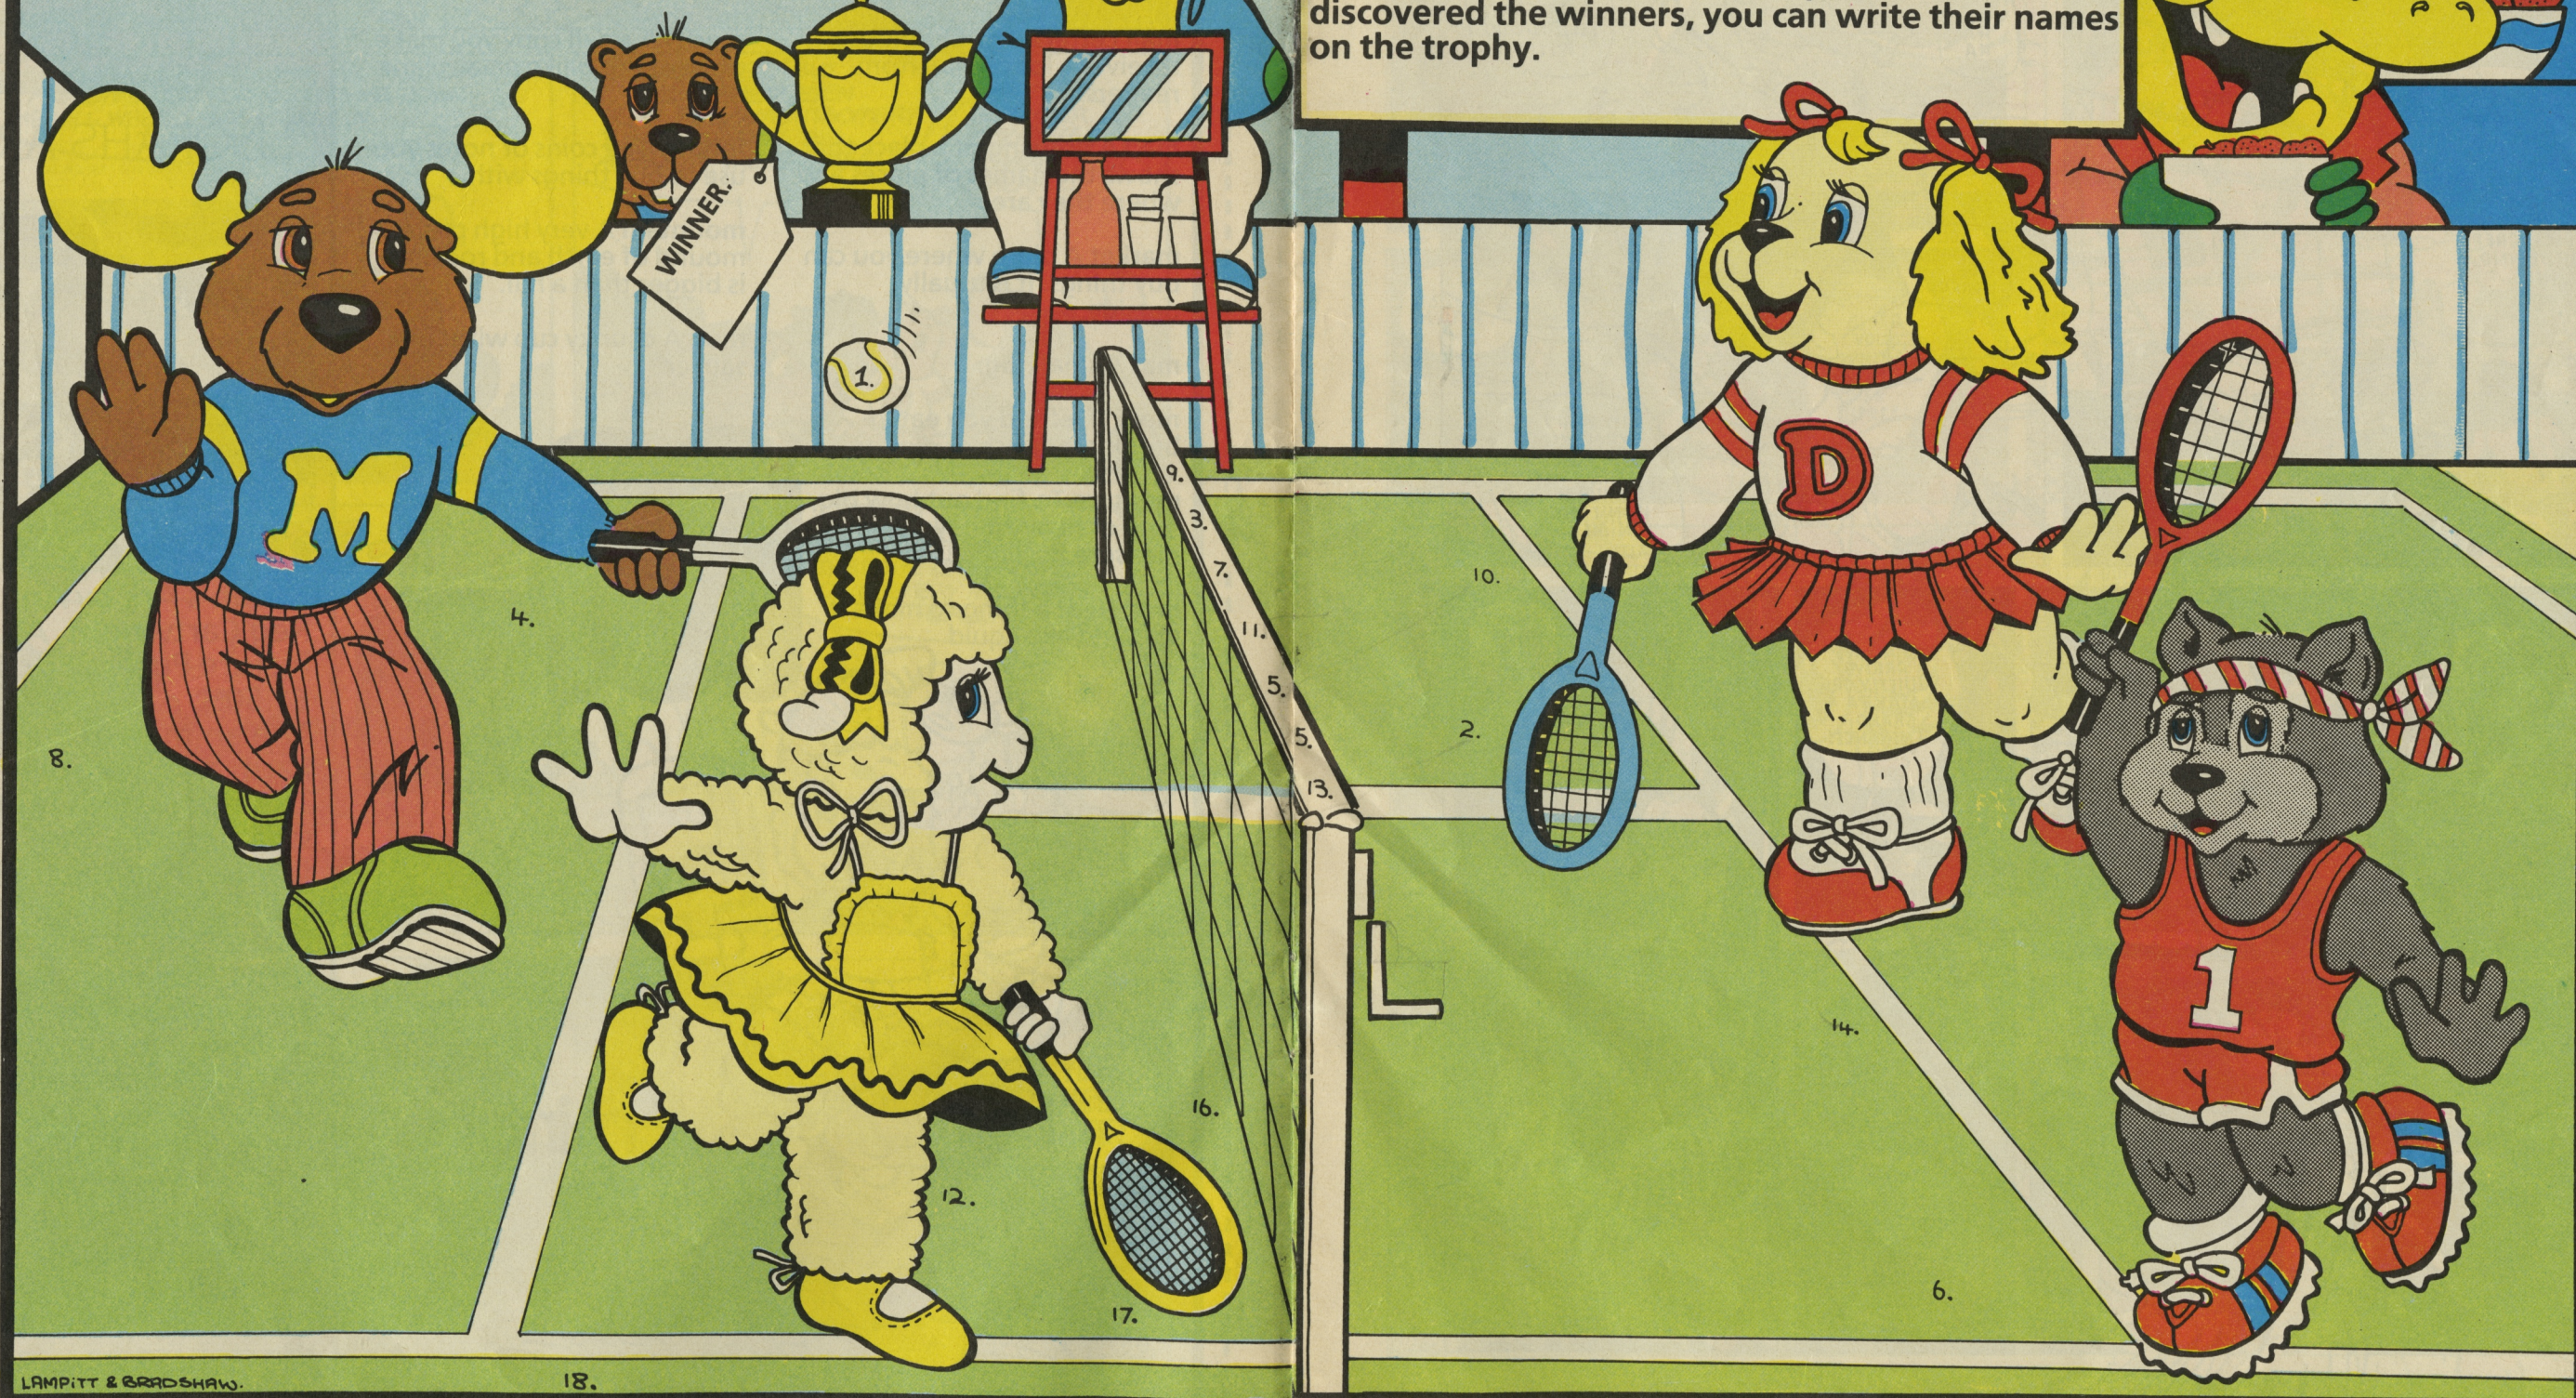

The animals at Puddle Farm had a problem. Their pond was far too small. Norah, the farmer, had told her animals that they just had to share, and take turns. But soon, Norah's animals have far more to worry about. A terrible flood that threatens to drown them all! Norah has an idea. She will build an ark for her and her animals. Beautiful illustrations. . . though I think that I've heard the story somewhere before. . .

Cut out and collect.

LETTERS

TO THE CLUBHOUSE!

Dear Portia,
Do you hibernate in winter? I would love to know.

Janet McClusky,
Belfast.

I don't hibernate Janet, because in Green Meadow there is lots of food for me to eat during the winter months. My cousins in Africa and South America don't hibernate either, so I always send them a Christmas card because I know that they'll be up and about. But some of my relatives who live in parts of North America which are very cold and snowy would much rather snooze during the cold, dark days of winter.

Dear Montgomery,
Here is a poem that I've written about my favourite character in your comic - Top Dog!

If you're in trouble, or ever down,
Call Top Dog (that's me).

If you ever need company call me,
Your friendly, neighbourhood Top Dog, just call me.

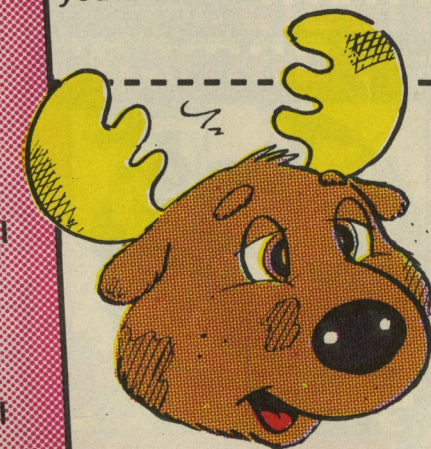

It's been nice meeting you - see you in
Next week's story of Top Dog.

Thank you for writing to us with your poem about Top Dog. We are very eager to hear from all our readers with suggestions and ideas for the comic. What part of the comic do you like, or dislike?

Dear Montgomery,
You must really be rushed off your feet lately. Writing for the Get Along Gang comic, sorting out the club and appearing on tv. Your new comic is great, especially the free gifts! My favourite was in issue 8. I got a figure of Rudyard Lion.

Thanks Aaron... must dash... you know how it is...
